The Structural Reform Support Programme (SRSP) is operated by the European Commission's Directorate General for Structural Reform Support (DG REFORM). The Webinar, which focuses mainly on policy makers and stakeholders in the field of electromobility, will concentrate on European and International Best Practice examples. Among the issues to be discussed are the different models of regulation of electromobility (e.g., licensing vs. concession models), the options available to ensure interoperability, roaming between service providers and information and technology support structures that need to be developed around recharging points.
