

Curriculum Vitae – Dr Christodoulos Patsalides

Christodoulos Patsalides was born in 1962 in Nicosia. He is a holder of a PhD title in Economics from the London School of Economics, University of London. He is married and has two adult daughters.

Upon his return to Cyprus, he was hired by the Central Bank of Cyprus where he worked for the Department of External Debt & Foreign Exchange Reserves Management (1989 - 1996).

Subsequently, Mr Patsalides continued his career at Bank of Cyprus, where he worked for almost 25 years (1996 - 2020). He managed the Group Treasury Department and thereafter he took responsibility of the management of the Financial Markets Division. Following the economic crisis of 2013, he was appointed as Finance Director and as an Executive Member of the Board of Directors. He played a crucial role in the recovery of the Bank and the rebuilding of trust among its stakeholders. Afterwards, he was promoted to Deputy CEO & Chief Operating Officer and finally to First Deputy CEO.

During 2018 – 2019, he served as Chairman of the Board of the Association of Cyprus Banks (ACB) and of Artemis Credit Bureau, a subsidiary of ACB.

In October 2020, he exited the Bank. He subsequently provided advisory services in Cyprus and abroad in the businesses of banking, insurance, asset management and financial technology.

During 2017 - 2023, he served as a Member of the Board of Directors of the Cyprus AntiCancer Society. He has been a Member of the Cyprus Economic Society since 1989.

In March 2023, he was appointed by the President of the Republic of Cyprus as his Special Adviser on Economic Affairs.